March 11 & 12, 2020 at 10:30am

Kingsborough Community College Leon M. Goldstein Performing Arts Center

A ballet inspired by Frances Hodgson Burnett's children's story about a secret and mysterious garden that heals the hearts of three broken people.

60 minutes in length
Language Arts Links
Ideal for Grades K-12

"Storytelling at its best."
- NY Theater Now

The Live Performance Package includes:
1) A live performance at Kingsborough Community College: March 11 & 12, 2020 at 10:30am
2) Movement workshop at school prior to show
3) Meet-the-Artist Q & A after show

$10 per student

$7 per teacher or chaperone

1. Call 718-891-6199 or make your reservation online on the Education page of Covenant Ballet's website: http://www.covenantballet.org/reserve. All seats, whether student, teacher or chaperone must be purchased.

2. Upon receipt of reservation, contracts will be sent to your school. You will have one opportunity to confirm or edit number of attendees.

3. Signed contracts and payment is due by December 21, 2018. If contracts and payments are not received by this date, your seats will be assigned to another school.

4. Call or email Marla Hirokawa at marla@covenantballet.org to schedule your student movement workshop(s), and to provide the number of buses transporting your students.

Covenant Ballet Theatre of Brooklyn, 718-891-6199, www.covenantballet.org
Marla Hirokawa, Artistic Director

NYC Cultural Affairs This program is supported, in part, by public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs in partnership with the City Council.